Contacts App Pseudo-code

User add contact to database

- User inputs contact information into form
- Contact is added to database
- Retrieve new list of contact from database and display results on the page.

User edits contact

- User clicks the "edit" link.
- Edit link open a popup modal with contact information
- User edits information and clicks save
- Contact is updated in the database
- Page is refreshed and a new list of contacts are retrieved from the database

User deletes contact

- User clicks on the delete icon.
- A warning message appears asking for confirmation.
- If user accepts, user is deleted from the database
- If user does not accept, break this action
- Retrieve a new list of contact from the database and displayed on page.